About Displayed Goods.

There is an old English law, I am told, whereby a "shopkeeper" can be compelled to take from his show window and sell at the price marked any article a customer points out. Several comparatively recent arrivals in this country have cited this to me, and kicked with both feet because of refusals to spoil a show window display by taking a pair of shoes of a brand and size of which there are hundreds in stock. As far as I can learn the enactment was intended to prevent the manufacture of samples for windows and the palming off on persons attracted thereby of "something equally as good."

However true it may be that the old English common law regards the price on an article in a window as a contract between the store owner and any passer-by who tenders the money, there is no such ordinance or law here. Often people insist on having something from the window, and decline to accept its exact duplicate. In that case, if the article is an expensive one, we strain the point and get it down; but if it is something low priced we give the customer the alternative of taking a duplicate or nothing.—Interview in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Professor Lane's Famous Ability.

Among men of letters the most prominent ambidexter is probably Professor George Martin Lane, pope professor of Latin in Harvard. It is his habit to stand facing the middle of the blackboard. He begins to write a sentence with his left hand, and runs along until he reaches a point in line with his face. Then he shifts the chalk from his left hand to his right, and continues writing until he reaches the end of the blackboard. When calling the roll the students know by the motion of the professor's hands just the mark he intends to make.

He writes with his right hand until he comes to a scholar who answers "not prepared." The pen is instantly changed from the right to the left hand. Everybody knows that means a goose egg. Professor Lane is noted for being one of the finest Greek and Latin scholars in America. His most famous contribution to contemporaneous literature, however, is a little out of this line. He is the author of that piscicultural epic, "The Lone Fishball."

The waiter roared it through the hall. "We don't give bread with one dabball!" —New York World.

New Magneto Telephone.

A new magneto telephone gives promise or being largely used in England. The invention consists of an arrangement for combining a telephone for domestic purposes with a crank bell pull, such as is ordinarily met with in houses; and the special merit it lies in the fact that it may be fitted without disturbing any of the existing arrangements or requiring a skilled workman to be sent to fix it. Indeed, any man of ordinary intelligence may fit it for himself without trouble. A similar telephone being fitted, say in the kitchen, a bell is used in the usual way to call the servant's attention, and upon her taking up the telephone the order is transmitted without rendering it necessary for her to enter the room. The telephones being magneto instruments no battery is required at all, and the possibility of future trouble and cost of maintenance is avoided.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Self Locking Envelopes.

Doctors have inveighed against the dangerous gum which is used on some envelopes, and mishaps have been frequent as the result of damping the gum on envelopes with the tongue. All possibility of such accidents is removed by the automatic lock envelopes which have been patented. On the flap of the envelope are two projecting flanges, and all that is necessary to do to close the envelope is to fold these flanges by ready stamped lines, and insert the flap thus narrowed in a slot provided, whereupon the folded flanges automatically lock themselves in the slot, and the envelope cannot be opened without tearing it. The operation sounds much more complicated than it really is in practice, for one of these new envelopes can be closed as readily as the better known gummed envelopes.—New York Telegram

Another New Gas Lamp.

A new type of gas lamp that has been introduced abroad consists primarily of an argand burner inclosed in a globe, with the air for supporting combustion admitted both above and below the flame. The lower supply of air passes through the center of the burner, while the upper supply enters from above the burner into the globe, which incloses besides the burner a metallic deflector upon which the flame impinges and is conducted to a porcelain bell mouthed exit above. The supply of air entering from above is thus highly heated in its passage. The result of the well balanced proportions of gas and air admitted to the globe, which practically becomes the combustion chamber, results in a brilliant bulb shaped light of high illuminating power.—New York Telegram

THE NEW CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT.

Under the New Apportionment Act, passed at the recent session of Congress, the next House of Representatives, that is, the House that will be elected next year, will consist of 358 members, an increase of 21. The total electoral vote will be 444, one vote for each Senator and Representative, of which 223 will be necessary to elect a President.

The Alta says there are some things that look queer about the new apportionment, which, notwithstanding the apparent discriminations, is reasonably fair. Texas gained in population 413,774, but was only given two additional Congressmen, while Nebraska, which gained only 606,508 in population was given three additional Congressmen. Alabama was given another Congressman for a gain in population of 250,512, but Iowa got no increase in representation for her gain of 287,281. Colorado gets a Congressman for 217,871 increase, and Oregon one for 138,999, but Indiana, with a gain in population of 214,103, Kentucky with 209,944, Tennessee with 225,159, North Carolina with 118,197, Louisiana with 178,641 and Mississippi with 159,003, got no increase. Minnesota for her 521,053 increase in population was given two Congressmen, but Missouri only obtained one for her 510,804 increase. Kansas got two Congressmen for a gain of 431,000, but Michigan got only one for 456,952 and Massachusetts one for her 455,858. Pennsylvania was given two for 975,123 increase and Illinois two for her 745,480, but Ohio got nothing for her gain of 474,254. New Jersey gained a Congressman for a population increase of 313,817, but New York was allowed no increase in representation for an increase in population of 914,992!

NEW ENGLAND METHODS.

At the election which took place in Rhode Island a few days ago there were four candidates in the field for Governor. Davis, Democrat, received 22,249 votes; Ladd, Republican, 20,993 votes; Larry, Prohibitionist, 1,329 votes, and Burton, Nationalist, 384 votes. As the Republicans have a majority of the Legislature, Davis, notwithstanding he had the highest vote, will not be Governor. The Constitution of Rhode Island requires a majority of all the votes cast to elect, and as Davis did not receive that number, the Republican will be elected by the Legislature.

In Connecticut, Morris, the Democratic candidate for Governor, had a majority of all the votes cast. The Lower House of the Legislature being Republican refused to declare him elected, while the Senate, which is Democratic, recognized him as Governor. The result is two Governors, one recognized by the Democrats, and the other, the old Governor, who is recognized by the Republicans, in the Nether States. There was also trouble in New Hampshire, where the Democrats claimed a majority of the Legislature and none of the candidates for Governor was elected by the people, but the Republicans, through the agency of the Secretary who made up the legislative roll, succeeded in capturing the Legislature and declaring Tuttle, Republican, elected.

WORLD'S FAIR MATTERS.

There is trouble in the National World's Fair Commission again. The Board of Control submitted a report to the Commissioners regarding what it had been doing for some months past. Several of the Commissioners contended that the Board exceeded its authority, and the questions of site, salaries and appointments, should be determined by the Commissioners. It is thought that an effort will be made to abolish the Board of Control, which would renew the old fight between the Local Directory and the National Commission and leave the affairs of the Great Exposition once more in chaos.

There are too many great men, or rather men who think they are great, connected with the management of the World's Fair and the result is continual trouble and factional dissensions.

It is remarkable how much the Gazette thinks it knows about the Journal and Cleveland, but a little more astonishing that it doesn't know enough about itself to say whether or not it will support gold bug Harrison. The profundity of the Gazette's knowledge of others is only equaled by the density of its ignorance of itself.

The Italian Government virtually concedes that it acted too hastily in recalling Baron Fava, in fact the Italian Minister telegraphed the Baron not to present his letter of recall, but the order came too late.

The Glass War Ended.

Special to the Journal.

St. Louis, April 4.—The war that has been raging between the manufacturers of plate and window glass for the past year has reached its end, and it is predicted by a leading St. Louis dealer that the price of glass will advance from 20 to 30 per cent, exclusive of rebates to dealers, within the next few days.

The Ivett Murder Trial. Special to the Journal.

MERCED, Cal., April 4.—Proceedings in the Olsen case began this morning. All the witnesses of the prosecution were called, about forty-five in number, and sworn. J. R. Jones, the first witness, took the stand and told the story of how the Sunday previous to the murder was spent, and how he discovered the body of Ivett on Monday morning.

At the afternoon session, Bennett, a convict, brought from San Quentin, was sworn. He said: "I went to the mountains in company with Olsen in 1887 with stock and stayed about four months. While there, one day we talked about his sister marrying old Ivett and he said: 'Sister did well, he is old and if an heir comes she gets it all.' I said: How if no heir comes? 'Well, if he don't die soon enough we can get away with him.' The next talk we had he wanted me to help do the old man up. He said there was lots to back us. We could prove an alibi, but he did not put up $50 and the job didn't go. About two years ago he offered me $2,000 to kill Ivett. I told him no and if Ivett was killed I would tell. O'sen then tried to turn it into a joke. The defense tried hard to break the testimony but failed, the witness' record being the only drawback to the testimony.

The case is creating great excitement but the attorneys state that the most exciting part has not come.

Death of a Well Known Mining Man.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Colonel Deane, a well known mining speculator and ex-President of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, died here yesterday. Death resulted from hemorrhage of the stomach, from which complaint he had suffered for some time. Mr. Deane was born in Ireland in 1834, and came to America in 1851, coming to California in 1855. In 1867 he began speculating in mining stocks and made and lost several fortunes. Of late years he stopped speculating, and engaged in the brokerage business.

A singular coincidence about Mr. Deane's death is the fact that several days ago a fanatic named Karl Voight, who did business through Deane's firm and lost, predicted that Deane would die on Friday.

Germany and American Pork.

Special to the Journal.

[Copyright 1891, New York Associated Press.]

BERLIN, April 4.—Negotiations have been resumed between United States Minister Phelps and Chancellor Von Caprivi on the question of the withdrawal of prohibitions against American pork products, and there are more hopeful prospects of an early and successful issue than the recent reports have led the public to believe. Chancellor Von Caprivi yesterday received a memorial from the delegates representing the various German industries and prepared a two days' discussion regarding the Chicago World's Fair, asking for the appointment of Imperial Commissioners, and that the Government otherwise assist in the fullest possible way the German exhibitors to make a display worthy of the country.

Thinks Blair Will Be Acceptable.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Mr. Tsui Kwo Yin, the Chinese Minister, and suite arrived last night from Peru. A reporter called at the legation to-day, and as the Minister could not be seen, called the attention of Mr. Ho to a telegram from San Francisco published in the evening papers to the effect that Chinese merchants in San Francisco would forward to Washington a protest against the appointment of Senator Blair as Minister to China. Ho, evidently speaking by authority, said no information regarding such protest has been received, and he was confident should it arrive the Minister would not present it to the President. He believed Senator Blair would be acceptable to the people and Government of China.

To Convene In Extra Session.

Special to the Journal.

New York, April 4.—A business house has received a cable from Santiago de Chile that an extra session of Congress will assemble on the 15th of this month. It is further stated that the report that Balmaceda is willing to withdraw on condition that he is allowed to name his successor, is false.

The Rhode Island Elections.

Special to the Journal.

PROVIDENCE, April 4.—Returns from Wednesday's elections, as corrected by today's advices, show the vote for Governor as follows: Burton (Nationalist), 384; Davis (Dem.), 22,249; Ladd (Rep.), 20,993; Larry (Pro.), 1,329. These figures show that Davis' plurality over Ladd was 1,254, but he lacked 960 votes of the majority necessary to elect. The complexion of the Legislature shows: Senate 22 Republicans, 7 Democrats and 1 Independent and 6 to be chosen; House 34 Republicans, 19 Democrats and 19 to be chosen, which will give the Republicans on joint ballot a majority of one with their present strength.

An Italian Outrage.

Special to the Journal.

New York, April 4.—A Kingston, New York, dispatch says: Considerable excitement exists at Lefevre Falls over an outrage by a number of Italians employed in the quarries there. Italians held a meeting and adopted resolutions denouncing the citizens of New Orleans and American institutions in general. They then hoisted the American flag on a high pole and ridiculed it with bullets. The quarry owners, hearing of this discharged the men.

Victory for the Insurgents.

Special to the Journal.

PARIS, April 4.—A cable dispatch from Chili, signed by the leader of the Congressional or Revolutionists party, announces that two thousand Government troops were recently defeated in Antofagasta and took refuge in Bolivia, where they were compelled to lay down their arms. By this victory the insurgents became masters of the province of Antofagasta.

Volunteers in Case of War.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Volunteers for service in the army in case of war, are still coming in to the War Department. Acting Secretary Grant to-day received telegrams from Alabama, Missouri and South Dakota to the effect that the senders were prepared to bring large numbers of volunteers to the Government service.

La Grippe on the Wane.

Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The Chicago mortality record for the past week is somewhat worse than for the preceding seven days which was considered decidedly alarming. This week there was a total of 951 deaths, an increase of 17 over the preceding week. To-day was sunshiny, however, and it is believed that the gripple epidemic is now on the wane.

Cavalry to Guard the California Parks.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Two troops of cavalry have been ordered to California to police the Sequoia and Yosemite National Parks. These troops are expected to arrive about May 1st. The Kinoid case has been postponed until Monday, two of the Judges being sick.

As to Small Change.

"I was surprised when I handed a newsboy five cents and received four copper in return," said James S. Gates, of San Francisco. "They were the first one cent pieces I had seen in about seven years. We don't have any pennies on the Pacific coast. Nothing is cheaper than five cents, and you never hear of an article there selling for 13, 27, 69 or 99 cents. The change couldn't be made if the shopkeepers did want to sell things for such prices. When I return to California I intend to take back a lot of one and two cent pieces as curiosities. It was not until recently that nickels began to look familiar with the Californian. Three years ago, I believe, was the first time any five cent pieces reached San Francisco."—Chicago Tribune.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

Reno, Nev., April 2, 1891.

To the Officers and Members of Reno Lodge No. 19, I. O. O. F.: We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect for our late Brother, George Warden, beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty to take from our midst our young and respected brother George Warden, therefore be it

Resolved, That we bow to the will of Divine Providence and trust that our brother has gone to the "Home of Rest Beyond the Grave" where sorrow is unknown.

He was young in years, as also in Odd Fellowship, but his life was marked for exemplary habits and true moral worth. Taken sick in January, he gradually lost his physical strength, until on March 23d he passed to the other shore, from whence none return.

That in the loss of our young and honored brother, this Lodge, as well as the community, has sustained an irreparable loss. To his dear relatives and friends we extend the hand of sympathy, and trust they may meet in the hereafter and renew the friendship inaugurated here.

That the Charter of this Lodge be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days.

That this Lodge tender a vote of thanks to the members of the choir who so ably assisted in the service of song; to Mr. Wm. Chamberlain who so kindly furnished conveyances for the choir and others, and to all the friends who assisted in paying the last tributes which mortals can to the departed dead.

That these resolutions be spread in full upon the minutes of this Lodge, a copy sent to the relatives of the deceased, and a copy published in each of the daily papers of our city.

Yours in F. L. and T.

HENRY B. RULE,
R. C. LEEPER,
C. LEMERT,
Committee.

The Enterprise says: The only notice taken of Arbor day on the Comstock yesterday was the adjournment of the public schools until Monday. The indifference on the Comstock to this wholesome institution is born of necessity. We can get trees to plant, but have no place to plant them in.

Small fishes were seen in Salt lake last week. The old settlers were astonished and an investigation followed, which disclosed the fact that the fishes came out of an artesian well which had been sunk on the shore of the lake.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies.

Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of its kind which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's.

Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists; 21c. six for $1. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE.

To the Business Men and Citizens of the State of Nevada:

THE TIME HAS COME when I am compelled to plead my own cause in this boycotting business. First, I will acknowledge that I signed the first contract to close at 8 o'clock, also that I did all I could to carry it out and help the League; but as it has been my misfortune to have reverses in business, and as I was compelled to raise money for parties that I owe, I went to the Clerk's League at a meeting on two different occasions, and told them it would be impossible for me to close at 8 o'clock.

Now, when the League says I, on different occasions, violated my pledge, all I can say and prove, and that by Mr. Al Wilson, who is a member of the League, that it is FALSE, as Mr. Wilson has been in my employ since the contract was signed.

So far as my word is concerned, it is for the people to say, and not for the League to publish such trash to the entire State. I will further state that when the time comes that a few boys try to pull down and degrade a man when he has the misfortune that I have had, then it is high time to sell out and let the boys run the town.

Respectfully,
C. W. BOOTON.

Quite a number of buildings are being erected in Reno at the present time, and the Reno Mill and Lumber Company is busy filling orders.

The Susanville Advocate says the indebtedness of Lassen county does not exceed $40, which amount is all that remains unpaid of the bonded debt of 1887-88.

Governor Colcord and Attorney General Torreyson arrived in Reno yesterday to attend the meeting of the Board of Regents, of which the new law makes them members.

The Lassen Mail says H. J. Freeman was arrested at Susanville for carrying passengers to Amides without a license. After hearing the facts the Court discharged the defendant.

A truck load of bullion from the Comstock was brought down from Virginia City by express last night. It looks bad to have bullion taken past the United States Mint to be shipped to San Francisco.

Frank McGaw, traveling agent for the Union Pacific, has been at Winnemucca, the Silver State says, trying to get cattle men to ship beavers by way of Ogden to Oregon and Washington, where stock is scarce and beef in demand.

Mrs. A. C. Webb died at Wadsworth last Friday, after a lingering illness. She was an estimable lady and had many friends at Dayton, where she formerly resided, as well as at Wadsworth. Her funeral will take place from the residence of Henry Johnson at 2 p. m. to-day.

John W. Kelly, the Bodie Mining Superintendent who was shot last Sunday by James Grant for alleged intimacy with the latter's daughter, was not so badly hurt as at first reported. At the preliminary examination Grant was discharged from custody, as Kelly refused to appear against him.

The Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House has been removed to its new quarters in W. O. H. Martin's building on Virginia street. An immense stock of new goods, embracing the latest styles and patterns, will be open for inspection at the Palace, which is amongst the handsomest stores on the coast.

Carson Tribune: Assemblyman Frank Folsom and Sheriff Botsford had a lively dispute in front of the County Building at noon Friday, ending in the law-maker flooring the peace officer. Botsford later swore out a complaint of assault against Folsom, so the affair will be ventilated in the Justice Court.

Yesterday morning when the freight train from the east arrived in Reno, the Conductor found that one of the trainmen was missing. An engine was immediately sent back and Brakeman Joelyn, the missing man, was found near the Asylum, where he had fallen off. He escaped with only a few slight bruises.

Patrick Mooney, whose death is announced in another column, is supposed to have had considerable money. He purchased a place at Huffaker's some time since for which he asked $2,500 and refused $1,500. He lived alone and had no relatives on the coast, though it is known that he has a brother and sister, both wealthy, in New York. He was a rober and industrious man of frugal habits.

The Federal license for selling tobacco has been abolished to take effect July 1, 1891. Dealers in liquor and tobacco will have to make two applications for Internal Revenue license before May 1st, one for liquors and tobacco for the months of May and June, which is $4 57; the other for liquors only from July 1st, 1891, to June 30, 1892, which is $25. Money and trouble can be saved by making applications for both licenses at the same time.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

After Much Talk Adjourned for a Week.

A meeting was held at the Court-house last night and was called to order by G. W. Baker, Dr. H. H. Hogan was elected Chairman and C. H. Stoddard, Secretary. The Chairman called for some one to state the object of the meeting and B. F. Leete responded and stated that the object was to discuss county affairs. In a long speech Mr. Leete opposed the purchase of parks and favored reducing county expenses.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution relating to public parks but was informed by Mr. Leete that he did not come to discuss public parks but county affairs, and county government generally, whereupon Mr. Baker withdrew his resolution. Mr. Leete then offered the following:

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting that a committee of twenty free holders of Washoe county be appointed to look after the faithful administration of the county laws and county government.

I. H. Beck addressed the meeting, which he was instrumental in calling. He was opposed to public parks, and mortgaging the town for that or any purpose and said money had been illegally expended. He favored the resolution.

Mr. Baker opposed the resolution. He said a public call had been made for the meeting and out of six or seven hundred taxpayers only 30 or 40 had responded and attended the meeting. If the people and taxpayers thought they had been robbed why didn't the Grand Jury bring the robbers before the bar of justice? He would voluntarily assist in prosecuting the plunderers. If such a committee as the resolution called for was appointed it would take nearly every person at the meeting.

Mr. Beck defended his position. Commissioner Hymers defended himself from the charges. Said he was an old taxpayer, and while occupying the position of Commissioner, he had faithfully and honestly performed the duties of the office and had the interests of the county at heart as much as any taxpayer.

Hon. Wm. Thompson moved to adjourn sine die. The motion was lost, and Mr. Beck moved to adjourn for one week and the motion prevailed.

MARCH WEATHER REVIEW.

Rainfall and Temperature on the Coast.

Lieutenant John P. Finley, in charge of the Signal Service, Division of the Pacific. In his weather review for March says that month has been distinguished by the high latitude of the cyclonic disturbances from the Pacific, the centers of all of which, eight in number, passed eastward over British Columbia, and the cold wave in Oregon and Washington from the 2d to the 5th, during which the temperature fell from 6 to 16 degrees below zero.

RAINFALL.

The rainfall is below the normal in all districts and at all stations except Winnemucca, Eureka and Roseburg, where the excess varies from 0.04 to 0.77 inches. The deficiency ranges from 0.04 at Keeler to 5.50 inches at Portland. The deficiency at San Francisco is 1.11 inches. The largest monthly rainfall was 6.00 inches at Fort Canby, and the smallest 0.00 at Yuma. The greatest in twenty-four hours was 1.32 inches at Roseburg on the 1st and 1.18 at Eureka on the 26th. Rain and snow fell on 27 days in Washington, on 30 days in Oregon, on 24 days in Nevada, on 25 days in California, on 7 days in Arizona.

TEMPERATURE.

It has been above the normal in Southern California, the Sacramento Valley, Southern Arizona and Northern Nevada. It has remained stationary in Western Washington and has fallen in Oregon, Eastern Washington, Southern Nevada and the San Joaquin Valley. The greatest excess, 6 degrees, occurred at Los Angeles, and the greatest deficiency, 7 degrees, at Fresno. The maximum, 36 degrees, occurred at Yuma on the 20th. The minimum, 8 degrees below zero, occurred at Spokane Falls on the 3d and Halleck, Nevada, on the 5th.

A CHURCHILL BARON.

A Veritable Monarch of All He Surveys.

The Central Nevada says of Charles Kaiser, Senator from Churchill county, now on his way to the Hawaiian Islands: "This man Kaiser when at home is a veritable monarch of all he surveys, who, in sixteen years, has changed from poverty to affluence and wealth, surrounded by a hamlet, two-thirds his own, known as Stillwater, the county seat of Churchill; and standing in his doorway views 13,000 acres of meadow land that skirt the mountain sides where roam 20,000 head of sheep, hundreds of horses and cattle, all in the name of Kaiser. His mortgages cover three-fourths of the county, and extend even to the town of Wadsworth on the C. P. R. R. This wealth has been amassed by perseverance, shrewd management and foresight."

Representatives Elected.

At a regular meeting of Dayton Lodge No. 5, I. O. O. F., held on last Thursday evening, the following named representatives were elected to the Grand Lodge which meets at Winnemucca on June 16th next: James R. Shaw, John Lothrop, Lyman L. Crockett, James Scott, Levi Lamb, James P. Haynes, Richard B. Davis.

Local Items From the "Journal" of April 8, 1871.

Dyer's stages make the time from here to Carson in four hours.

The Truckee river is rising and we may expect to see good trout fishing soon.

Thirty carloads of beef cattle were shipped from this place during the month of March.

Freight receipts at the Reno freight depot for the week ending April 6 foot up 1,570 tons.

W. R. Chamberlain is having the inside of the Depot Hotel greatly improved by repainting it throughout.

We understand that Charlie Chase, the popular landlord of the Glendale Hotel, contemplates a good old-fashioned country dance at Glendale on the 28th inst.

Last Wednesday morning while en route to Carson and when about a half a mile from town, the axle of Dyer's stage coach gave way, and the entire number of passengers, twenty-one in all, were precipitated to the ground.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

In the account of the Arbor Day exercises held at the public school Friday was omitted mention of the fact that the tree planted especially by the school was dedicated to Hon. Orvis Ring, the orator of the occasion being Master Fred Walls, a pupil of the middle class. That the tree may flourish, and in its smaller way be an emblem of the faithful services of the one to whom much of the success of the school in the past is due, is a sentiment fully shared by all who were present, as well as by all who hold their former teacher and friend in grateful remembrance.

We ask the people of Reno to boycott Bonton. "RENO CLERKS' LEAGUE."

FORGERIES COMMITTED IN JAIL.

A California Convict Whose Career of Crime Did Not End in Prison.
 My some strange accident there has been discovered in San Quentin prison a crime as odd and uncommon as any that Gaborian's fertile brain ever evolved.

In the ordinary prisons it is usually presumed that once a criminal has been securely lodged within the walls his career of crime is ended for at least the term of his incarceration. While this is not entirely true of the California penitentiary, it has heretofore managed to keep most of its occupants from the commission of felonies of which other prisoners were the victims.

It remained for Convict C. R. Bachman, however, to distinguish himself in a way that no jailbird before him ever did, and by such ingenious improvement of the opportunities offered him as to mark San Quentin as one of the most uncommon prisons in the world. There is a great deal of managerial method in the administration of affairs at San Quentin of the kind that carping critics call red tape. Among the many forms which are rigorously carried out is that of having envelopes, which are intended to carry communications to the deputy warden, printed with his name and title in full upon the face.

When anything of importance had to be communicated to the deputy it was invariably entrusted to a convict to insure its safe delivery.

Bachman, who is serving a long term for arson; Failing, a life convict, and "Fat Jack" Kiley, who has about forty years' penalty to pay for a felonious assault, all had access to the deputy warden's mail. These three prisoners enjoyed the privilege of reading all these important communications addressed to the deputy warden whenever it suited them to do so, and all because of those imposing and official looking printed envelopes.

A supply of the envelopes was easily purchasable. Whenever there was a letter entrusted to a convict messenger it fell into the hands of one of the trio. It was quietly taken aside, the envelope torn open, the contents read and noted, and provided these critical readers found nothing objectionable in the letter it was placed in one of the extra envelopes and delivered in due form.

In his mill, that is to say the deputy warden's portion of it, Bachman one day discovered that an old man, William Phelps by name, who is serving a life term for murder, had several hundred dollars on deposit in the warden's hands.

Bachman had been spending his money in a royal, spendthrift way, and found his exchequer in a low ebb. Here was a chance to recoup, and to play a stroke worthy of his genius and opportunities.

He gained the confidence of the old man, told him he had influential friends and promised to get him pardoned. Then the clever firebug sent for a lawyer and told him of the case and interested him in Phelps. Later on Bachman gave the lawyer an order on the warden for a considerable sum of money, with Phelps' signature attached, and also a note of approval bearing an officer's signature.

The order was taken to the warden, who wrote a check for the amount, and was about to give it to the lawyer when an officer standing by suggested that it would be wise to send for Phelps and see if it was all right. The officer was not suspicious, but simply familiar with his surroundings.

Phelps was sent for and denied ever having written the order. It was examined and found to be a forgery. Then the officer who had approved the order was summoned, and denied as emphatically that he had signed the note of approval. This was also found to be a forgery.

A little further investigation was suggested, and, although rather unprecedented, was carried out, and it was found that Bachman was the author of both of the forgeries.—San Francisco Examiner.

Laughter in Public.
 What is the reason one hears in public places the loud voices of women so much oftener than men?

Women—these loud voiced ones—seem to have the fancy that they cannot be seen unless they are heard. And so they can't—in their true character. If it were not that their words and laughter floated out into space and above the hum of all other voices they really might, at some time get mistaken for ladies. From their looks no one would imagine for an instant that they were common, ill bred and vulgar.

A quiet flash of intelligence from their eyes, accompanied by an appreciative smile, would really convince an onlooker that possibly it was the forerunner of the keenest wit. But no wit can accompany the loud guffaw that bursts out at the slightest provocation; no wit
 from the boisterous laughter, and no appreciation of wit in others.—Chicago Herald.

Future of Wheat in America.
 We have had a run of prosperity for some years, and had been regaled with the thought that we had more food material than the nation could consume, and as much to spare as the rest of the world might want to buy. The indications are that the day of heavy surplus production is fast waning. Our wheat crop in 1874 was the magnificent total of 512,760,000 bushels. It has not kept at the upper notch, and in the year 1889 it figured a maximum yield of 490,500,000 bushels. We have a greater population by nearly 15,000,000 than a decade ago,
 and the increase of home consumption would necessitate a larger yield and not a smaller.—Economist.

A Bottle's Long Voyage.
 Clement Wragge, the Ben Nevis meteorologist, threw overboard 150 well corked bottle messengers during the passage from Australia to England in 1878.
 Only six of them were heard of afterward. One was picked up at the entrance of Mobile bay, after having made a circuit of 5,500 miles in two years. It had drifted from 37 degs. north latitude, 88
 degs. west longitude, through the Caribbean sea into the Gulf of Mexico.—Chambers' Journal.
